About the Property

Set along the shores of Lake Koronis, this 100-foot-wide lot offers a great opportunity to build a home or cabin in a well-regarded central Minnesota lake area. With a wide footprint, there's flexibility to design a layout that takes full advantage of the setting—whether that's space for a dock, outdoor living, or simply enjoying the view. Lake Koronis is known for its solid fishing and all-around recreation. Spend your time on the water boating, skiing, or paddling, or enjoy quieter days casting for walleye, bass, crappie, and more. With over 3,000 acres to explore, the lake offers a mix of open water, bays, and shoreline. The area stays active year-round, with winter bringing ice fishing, snowmobiling, and nearby trails. Located about 70 miles from the Twin Cities, it's an easy trip for weekends or a longer stay. Whether you're planning something seasonal or a full-time residence, this is a chance to secure a spot on a lake that continues to draw interest for its size, quality, and accessibility.
